Cruise GQ

Hi everyone, this is the first of a regular newsletter we will be sending out, keeping you all in the loop on what has been happening and on any special events that are coming up.

We have officially been open for business from mid October and so far have managed to accommodate around 5000 people, consume over 4500 Peroni and work a total of, well let's not even go there... With our 4 scheduled trips a day (11:00, 13:30, 16:00 and 18:30), seven days a week and our private charters, we are definitely not bored!

New Year was a big hit with all our guests and with Valentines Day looming, make sure you pre-book to ensure that that someone special in your life has something to boast about to their friends in the morning!!

FYI ladies, if you are looking to rub shoulders with perfection, step on up because if Jude Law uses GQ as his sailing vessel of choice while in Cape Town, then there is no limit to who you might end up cruising with (I happen to have some insider info on a certain Olympic skier who will be gracing us with his presence this month, just to give you the heads up).

Genius has also pointed in our direction with Larry Paige, the founder and CEO of Google, chartering GQ and letting us bask in his presence if only to have a little of his success rub off on us...

If you were a top Cape Town restaurant and only closed one day out of the whole year, where would you choose to spend that day?? Well, just ask Wakame, on that one day they lazed around on the deck of GQ sipping Peroni and waving at the people on Camps Bay beach, could you think of a better way to spend your day off?

So as you can see GQ is THE place to be at the moment and if Jude, Mr Google and the staff of Wakame choose to spend their valuable time with us, it shows that we take care of our customers, as we will with yours!!

If you are still not convinced then just ask GQ magazine, Mont Blanc, Polo, SAB Miller, Liberty Life, Thompsons Tours and Grand West Casino who turned up in variations of flip-flops, suits, stilettos, bikinis and euro-mullets - we don't care what you come in just make sure it includes a good attitude!!

Thanks to everyone involved for all your support. Don't forget to keep both your eyes on us, we are heading towards greatness!!
