the Smart Choice!

Another month has sailed by without any hitches, and clearly Cruise iQ is still the smarter choice amongst our competition...

Cruise iQ has had to adapt to the changing seasons and so our Sunset Cruise departure time has moved:

New Sunset Cruise departure time:

17:30, 30 minutes earlier.

New Happy Hour will only now be an hour, from 16:00 to 17:00.

It is unfortunate that Mother Nature does not want to play along and give us gloriously long days with endless sunshine, so we just have to adapt to her changing moods to make sure we make the most of the shorter days.

Our other scheduled trips are still going out at 11:00 and 13:30, both for an hour and a half and at the regular price of R110.00, our new look Happy Hour cruise is R100.00 to make up for the shorter trip, and our Sunset cruise is R180.00 as normal.

Private Charters are still as popular as ever with SABMiller and private party groups. We have covered everything from Hen nights, Wedding receptions, Stag do's, incentive trips and company social gatherings. We even had the unexpected presence of Meg Ryan and friends on an early morning trip last week where the whales and dolphins helped us to make it an unbelievable South African experience, which proves yet again Cruise iQ is the place to be!!

Thanks to Fashion TV Cafe, The Green Dolphin Restaurant, The Cape Grace and all the others who have chosen Cruise iQ for your guests, customers, family and friends in April.

We will continue with the same outstanding service and we will keep accommodating Mother Nature in the hope that she keeps the sun shining and the seas in perfect sailing condition complete with all the sea life that we share Table Bay with.

Safe Sailing.
