PERONI

So the tourist season is upon us and iQ 2010 is flying with private charters booked left, right and centre. Christmas parties, bachelor parties, product launches, summer parties etc etc etc... its all happening with us so if you want in on the action, give us a call and book your date NOW!

As for the weather, we are just going to act like it is summer; sailing conditions are awesome even if the temperatures are hovering around "winter". We are still going out every day at 11:00, 13:30, 16:00 and 18:30 waiting in anticipation for the thermometer to hit "summer".

RATES UNCHANGED from 2009: The real big news is that our rates are unchanged. Same rates from 2009 going into 2011. Times are tough all round and we are committed to offering the absolute best value for money sailing trips in the V&A Waterfront. From R130.00 up to R200.00 for the famous sunset trip with free champagne. Join us.

So whether it is lazing on our decks overlooking Clifton (and all the suckers on the beach not in the know) or high flying it for a red carpet event, let Cruise iQ be on your lips when organizing your next function, trip or incentive.

Have an awesome Christmas and a stunning New Year!!

Happy Sailing!
